Joseph Micale

Requiem mass for Joseph Micale, 917 Kornblum Ave., will be celebrated at 9:30 a.m. tomorrow at Nativity Catholic Church. Rosary will be recited at 8 o'clock this evening at the Halverson-Leavell Mortuary Chapel.

Mr. Micale, who was a self-employed barber, died Sunday in a Torrance hospital. Born March 18, 1930, in Pennsylvania, he had lived in this area for 20 years.

Surviving are a daughter, Joan Micale of Torrance; a son, Vincent of Torrance; two brothers, Nick of Torrance and Sam of Pennsylvania; and three sisters, Rose Cartwright of Ohio, and Ann Stevenson of Torrance.

Burial will be in Green Hills Memorial Park.

Narcotics Arrests Made Following Auto Crash

A Lomita man suffered a fractured neck and possible internal injuries Sunday evening when the car in which he was riding was struck from the rear by a small foreign car, police said.

The driver of the small car and his three passengers were arrested for possession of marijuana or narcotics.

The injured man was 21-year-old Ector Espinoza of 2216 W. 255th St., Lomita. Espinoza told Torrance police he was stopped for a red light on Western Avenue near 220th Street when the other car plowed into his vehicle.

At the wheel of the smaller car was David E. Valenzuela, 20, of 680 W. 7th St., San Pedro. He was arrested on charges of reckless driving, possession of marijuana and a narcotic, and driving under the influence of an intoxicating drug.

Valenzuela suffered lacerations about his face and chin. The car sustained major damage.

Sal Porpora, 20, of San Pedro, a passenger in Valenzuela's car, suffered multiple abrasions and a severe cut over his right eye. He was arrested for possession of narcotics.

All of the injured were rushed by ambulance to Harbor General Hospital.

Two other Valenzuela passengers, Larry R. Andresen and Mike KrKemenic, both 20, of San Pedro, were not injured. They were arrested for possession of marijuana and possession of narcotics, respectively.
